

THE PIRATE PARTY

- Is a political party of the information age, promoting openness and freedom, defending freedom of speech, privacy, and equal legal protection for all, regardless of gender, race or sexual preference.
- Advances the free flow of information and demands the revocation of excessive powers in current copyright and patent laws, improving public access to all information, including that of the decision makers.
- Opens the government to build an open society, empowering citizens to participate in the formulation of new laws and statutes.
- Pursues more sensible politics on information society politics where the return-of-investment of public funds is good enough and where the mobility and usage of free information is increased.
- Strives to decrease government regulation and bureaucracy, as well as promoting the freedom of an individual and equal treatment of all members of society.
- The core values of the Pirate Party are civil rights and equality.
